Subject: Region of Waterloo COVID-19 instructions take effect today

Further to the message from the Kate Windsor (copy of memo follows) distributed today, St. Jerome's University's CRT can confirm that we are well prepared to follow the Region of Waterloo's instructions to workplaces and businesses. Our planning will continue to be guided by directions from the Region of Waterloo Public Health, the University of Waterloo, and the Government of Ontario.

Thank you for your collective efforts across campus to follow the University's safety protocols. Our compliance testing is demonstrating that your efforts are making a difference. Department heads, chairs, and directors are responsible for ensuring these safety protocols continue to be followed. If you have any concerns/questions in this regard, please bring them to our attention.

Thank you for helping us to keep our campus safe.
