

STUDENT CAMPUS MINISTER JOB DESCRIPTION

2020- 2021

Campus Ministry | St. Jerome's University

OVERVIEW

Student Campus Ministers (SCMs) are key contributors to the Campus Ministry team. They provide diverse, interest-based programming that supports the spiritual needs of students at St. Jerome's University.

SCMs are full time undergraduate students at the University of Waterloo. This position requires a four-month commitment with approximately 5-7 hours of work per week. There is an option for a SCM to extend their position for another four-month term. Students in other leadership roles are encouraged to discuss handling dual roles with both potential supervisors before committing to both.

RESPONSIBILITIES

As a SCM you will be responsible for:

- Planning, promoting, and executing programming based on the different spokes of the Comprehensive Campus Ministry wheel. (<http://www.ccm.ca/about/comprehensive-campus-ministry/>)
- Creating a welcoming, inclusive environment for all students especially in Campus Ministry spaces and events.
- Supporting the 7:00 p.m. Sunday liturgy with the guidance of the Spiritual and Student Development Advisor and the Director of Campus Ministry.
- Contributing to the content and strategy of the @sjucampusmin social media account.
- Attending weekly meetings along with training and professional development sessions.

Please note: Due to the COVID-19 global pandemic, all Campus Ministry programming is currently being offered virtually. Should this change in the Fall 2021 or Winter 2022 term, this may allow for in-person programming. We are looking for people who will be able to contribute to virtual or in-person programming as it becomes safe to do so.

REQUIREMENTS

To be a SCM, you will need to be:

- A current, full-time, undergraduate University of Waterloo student.
- Strongly committed to academic excellence.
- A team-player who is able to collaborate with other team members.
- Eager to explore and develop your own faith and leadership skills.
- Willing to learn more about the wide diversity of faith expressions.
- Able to work from a multi-faith perspective.
- Fully committed to the responsibilities of this leadership opportunity.

Previous experiences with or knowledge of Campus Ministry at St. Jerome's is an asset but not required.
