1. ST. JEROME'S UNIVERSITY MISSION STATEMENT

- 1.1. St. Jerome's University ("SJU" or "we" or "our" or "us") is a public Roman Catholic University affiliated with the University of Waterloo ("UW"), historically associated with the educational vision of the Congregation of the Resurrection. We are committed to learning and academic excellence, the gospel of values of love, truth and justice, and the formation of leaders for the service of the community and the Church. In all of our activities and practices, SJU functions within the context of the Roman Catholic tradition and the principles of academic freedom.

2. RESIDENCE EXPERIENCE

- 2.1. Community. Our pride is our community; the friendships, the spirit, the common interests, the shared responsibility and the call to action. It gives us energy, it gives us perspective, it gives us pause. It's the debate in class that becomes conversation over dinner and draws us together as lifelong friends. SJU is a community that represents diversity, inclusiveness and acceptance.
- 2.2. Tradition. Our tradition is giving hundreds of hours to local charities, sporting team colours to cheer on our floor mates, 300 friends gathering to sing "happy birthday", community meals, quirky and intriguing roommates who share their care packages and making sure we're always up for class, etc.
- 2.3. Engagement. SJU is deeply engaged in our studies, in our interests, in our communities and abroad. We're curious, inspired, committed and we value the interconnectedness of our global community. We're partners in sustainability and environmentalism. We're dreamers, doers, talkers and actors.
- 2.4. Pride. We're proud of our community. Proud to be part of over 150 years of active social justice and community service that is strongly linked with academic success and our mission to educate the "whole person". We're also proud of our Catholic values, unique traditions, mealtime rituals and that genuine feeling that everyone counts, everyone contributes, and everyone has something to offer.
- 2.5. Living is learning. It starts with you; it lives in every resident room and it is the one thing that will stay with you forever.

3. LIVING IN RESIDENCE

- 3.1. Introduction. A residence is much more than a convenient place to live on campus, it is a place to learn and to grow. In addition to the academic challenges that you will experience at university, the daily experience of living with other residents will challenge you to expand your awareness and understanding of yourself and others. You will establish some lasting friendships. You will have an opportunity to contribute to the quality of university and residence life.

- 3.2. Community. Moving into residence means moving into a new community. You will have many opportunities to get involved. There will be numerous committees, activities and events that will allow you to interact with other residents, develop friendships, and build community. Moving into residence also means learning to live with others. Living together requires that each resident take responsibility for the spirit of mutual respect and cooperation necessary for successful community living. This means that:
- 3.2.1. Each resident must be considerate of the privacy and property of other residents;
 - 3.2.2. An atmosphere conducive to study and rest must be maintained;
 - 3.2.3. Courtesy and respect must be shown to other residents, the residence staff, the kitchen staff and the cleaning and maintenance staff at SJU;
 - 3.2.4. Each resident has the right and the obligation to remind other residents of their responsibilities to the residence community and the standards and expectations of the residence community at SJU; and
 - 3.2.5. Intimidation, harassment, or acts of discrimination on the basis of race, colour, gender, religion, national origin, ability, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation or any protected ground under the Human Rights Code (Ontario) will not be tolerated by SJU.
- 3.3. Compliance. Residents must comply with requests made by residence staff and SJU officials in accordance with established regulations, policies, guidelines and directives of SJU and UW issued from time to time. The conduct of residents is governed predominantly by this Residence Policies Handbook (the "Handbook") and the Residence Contract (the "Contract") as provided in Section 4 below.

4. RESIDENCE POLICIES HANDBOOK AND RESIDENCE CONTRACT

- 4.1. This Handbook. This Handbook is designed to give you the information you need to know about SJU residence ("SJU Residence"). Please read the contents carefully. If you have never lived in residence, this Handbook will provide you with an introduction to many facets of the residence life experience. If you have lived in residence before, even SJU Residence, we encourage you to read this Handbook again for any updated information.
- 4.2. Amendments. Although every effort has been made to ensure accuracy of information, this Handbook, the Contract, and other SJU or UW policies or procedures may be changed, modified or revoked by SJU or UW, in their sole and absolute discretion, from time to time without advance notice in order to, among other things, respond to evolving circumstances related to COVID-19, including, without limitation, changes resulting from government guidance and response, public health directives, and to SJU or UW policies and procedures. You agree to comply with all such further amendments as may be implemented by SJU or UW from time to time. The department of Student Affairs reserves the right to take any steps necessary to preserve the safety, security and well-being of the residents and/or SJU Residence property. Such steps include, but are not limited to, the right to terminate your Contract without financial liability to SJU in accordance with the Contract and this Handbook. This Handbook is only for SJU residences and not the affiliated UW or UW affiliated University Colleges.

- 4.3. Resident Contract. This Handbook is incorporated into your Contract and is made a part thereof as provided in your Contract. The Contract can be found in your eRezLife application, as well as online as provided in Section 25 below.

5. SANCTIONS AND APPEALS

5.1. Sanctions.

5.1.1. Noncompliance. SJU Residence reserves the right to determine appropriate sanctions when a resident has not complied with their Contract or this Handbook, in particular with Section 12 below regarding Conduct Expectations. For clarification purposes, sanctions will apply even if the resident withdraws from SJU Residence, is no longer enrolled in UW classes, or subsequently fails to meet the definition of a student while a disciplinary matter is pending.

5.1.2. Sanctions. Sanctions include, but are not limited to, the following:

- 5.1.2.1. Fines;
- 5.1.2.2. being served with a trespass notice;
- 5.1.2.3. a Behavioural Contract; and
- 5.1.2.4. termination of your Contract (collectively "Sanctions").

Residents should be aware that unacceptable conduct off-campus or within another SJU Residence community may result in Sanctions and other means of non-academic discipline that could impact potential residency at any of the residences of UW and its affiliated University Colleges.

5.1.3. Fines in accordance with this Section 5 will be assessed based on the nature of the incident and the circumstances surrounding it. All fines in accordance with this Section 5 are made at the sole discretion of the SJU Residence & Community Life Coordinator (or designate from the Student Affairs Team) in consultation with the Residence Dons (the "Residence Dons"). Sanctions in accordance with this Section 5 will be in the amount of $125.00 except for Sanctions in regards to physical property which will be cost based to the amount required to repair the property in question. If fines in accordance with this Section 5 are paid within seven (7) days, the fine amount will decrease to $100.00, excluding fines related to drug violations in accordance with Section 12 below, which will remain in the amount of $125.00.

5.1.4. Reasons for Sanctions in accordance with this Section 5 include, but are not limited to, the following:

 - 5.1.4.11. harassment or abuse of students, residents or staff at SJU, refusal to cooperate with SJU Residence staff or any other conduct unbecoming of a SJU resident in the sole discretion of the Residence Office.
- 5.1.5. In the event of your failure to abide by the provisions of this Handbook, your Contract or other residence guidelines and directives that may be issued by the SJU, or UW from time to time, SJU may forthwith terminate your Contract. Where SJU terminates your Contract, you will be expelled from SJU Residence and are required to vacate the premises within twenty-four (24) hours. You will still be responsible for your residence fees as outlined in your Contract at the sole discretion of the Residence Office.

5.2. Appealing a Sanction.

- 5.2.1. Introduction to Appeal Process. If you believe a Sanction was imposed unfairly, with prejudice and/or in a manner that is not in accordance with your Contract, this Handbook or applicable legislation, you may appeal the Sanction in accordance with this Section 5.2.
- 5.2.2. Informal Appeal. You shall begin the appeal process by pursuing an informal appeal through discussion and dialogue with your Residence Don, Community Advisor and/or the Residence Life Coordinator (or designate from the Student Affairs team) ("Informal Appeal") prior to pursuing a formal appeal provided in Section 5.2.3 below. These discussions are intended for all parties to more thoroughly understand why a Sanction may have been imposed and to clarify your Contract or this Handbook as need be. The majority of disputes are resolved at this stage. If you are unsatisfied with the outcome of the Informal Appeal, you may submit a formal appeal in accordance with Section 5.2.3 below.
- 5.2.3. Formal Appeal. If you are unsatisfied with the outcome of your Informal Appeal in accordance with Section 5.2.2 above, you may submit in writing a formal letter (may be submitted electronically) to the Manager, Residence and Community Life (or designate from the Student Affairs Team) providing the details of the Sanction, details of your Informal Appeal and your reasons for continuing to appeal same within ten (10) business days of the Informal Appeal (a "Formal Appeal Request").
- 5.2.3.1. Grounds. You may only request a Formal Appeal on one of two grounds, which must be declared in your letter: (1) an appeal based on an unfair or improper application of your Contract or this Handbook as it relates to your involvement in the incident that prompted the Sanction, or (2) an appeal based on a dispute of the facts as they pertain to why the Sanction was imposed.

- 5.2.3.2. Review. The Manager, Residence and Community Life (or their designate) will meet with you, normally within ten (10) business days after receiving your Formal Appeal Request, to discuss the Sanction, your involvement, your Informal Appeal and to discuss the application of your Contract and this Handbook to the situation. They may also meet with residence staff, the UW Special Constable Service (UWSCS), etc., as deemed necessary or appropriate and take whatever steps are seen as appropriate in the circumstances to review the appeal, which may delay your meeting with the Manager, Residence and Community Life.
- 5.2.3.3. Decision. The Manager, Residence and Community Life or their designate will communicate a decision regarding the Informal Appeal to you in writing, normally within twenty (20) business days of receiving your Formal Appeal Request. The decision of the Formal Appeal, as communicated by the Manager, is final.
- 5.2.3.4. Timeline. The timeline of the Formal Appeal process is not entirely within the control of the Manager, Residence and Community Life or the Student Affairs Team, and the timelines provided above are estimates only.

5.2.4. Additional Information Regarding Appeals.

- 5.2.4.1. Statute of Limitations. A Sanction can only be appealed within 10 business days of the Sanction being communicated to the resident.
- 5.2.4.2. Representation. A resident wishing to appeal a Sanction does so of their own volition, without proxy or representation.
- 5.2.4.3. Non-Appealable Sanctions. Removal from SJU Residence (other than the termination of a residence contract) and trespass notices are made at the sole discretion of the Director of Student Affairs or their designate, in consultation with the Residence Office, Student Services directors, UWSCS and other municipal, provincial and federal authorities where applicable. Sanctions as provided in this Section 5.2.5.3 are not appealable through the SJU Residence Appeal process as provided in Section 5.2.

6.1. Incoming Student & First Year Admission.

- 6.1.1. UW 100% Residence Guarantee. SJU Residence is open to any undergraduate student registered at UW or SJU, however, first year students who are co-registered with SJU will be given priority for SJU Residence accommodation provided they have indicated SJU as their first preference on the First Year Residence Guarantee Application and completed all requirements for submission by the appropriate deadline.
 - 6.1.2. Residence Waitlist. First year students that miss the First Year Residence Guarantee Application will still be considered for SJU Residence through the Residence Waitlist for that term. Students who are contracted with another UW residence through the First Year Residence Guarantee will not be offered additional contracts from SJU Residence.
 - 6.1.3. No Guarantee of Specific Room. While the UW First Year Residence Guarantee guarantees incoming first year students who meet the application criteria a space in residence on the wider UW campus, we can never guarantee a specific SJU Residence building or room.

 - 6.2.1.1. Administrative Eligibility. While in SJU Residence as a first-year admission, a resident must have cooperated with their Contract and this Handbook. For example, a resident who has not cooperated with behavioral, disciplinary, and/or administrative guidelines may be denied re-admittance in accordance with this Section 6.2. Residents who do not meet fee payment deadlines in accordance with SJU's Fees and Payments link provided in Section 25 below may also be denied re-admittance in accordance with this Section 6.2. All bills owed to the SJU Residence must be paid in full before any application in accordance with this Section 6.2 will be processed.

- 6.4. Graduate Students. SJU Residence does not offer graduate student accommodation.

- 7.1. Student Mental Health and Wellness. We are committed to supporting and promoting the mental health and wellness of our students, residents and SJU Residence communities, respecting and recognizing the impact for both.
- 7.2. Mental Health and Wellness Services. SJU offers a variety of services in support of student and resident mental health and wellbeing, and collaborates with other partners across UW and off-campus to support student wellbeing. All SJU students and residents have access to on-campus counselling services through UW. For more information, please visit UW's Counselling Services website as provided in Section 25 below, which includes but is not limited to how to make an appointment and exploring options for yourself, peers or friends. Information on SJU's wellness initiatives is provided in Section 25 below.
- 7.3. Scope and Limitations. There are times when the mental health and wellbeing needs of a resident extends beyond the scope, practice, and/or ability of the SJU Student Affairs team. In these cases, we will work closely with the resident to ensure they are connected to appropriate resources including (but not limited to) those listed in Section 7.4. Friends and family outside of SJU and UW are also seen as helpful and important supporters for residents whose needs extend beyond the scope of the Student Affairs team. In order for SJU to be able to provide appropriate accommodations or supports, there may be times when a resident is required to identify individuals from their personal life, or professionals outside of SJU and UW that Student Affairs staff can connect with and include in their circle of support. It is possible that SJU and/or its Student Affairs team will not be able to accommodate a resident's particular needs (with or without this outside support) and in the case where appropriate accommodations or supports are not able to be put in place, a resident may unfortunately be required to leave SJU Residence. In this case, a pro-rated portion of the resident's fees, etc. would be refunded.

Regular floor meetings are held by each Residence Don to inform residents of the current happenings and planned activities for their floor. Attendance at these meetings is mandatory unless a previous arrangement, in writing, has been made with your Residence Don.

11. CONFLICT RESOLUTION

- 11.1. Introduction. Living in a residence environment requires sharing living space with various other residents. It is not uncommon for conflict to occur. As members of the educational community, we believe that managing conflict is an excellent way for residents to learn about themselves and how to get along with other people who may not have the same ideals or beliefs.
- 11.2. Conflict Resolution Process. The following outlines the process that residents shall take when there is a conflict within SJU Residence:
- 11.2.1. Independent Resolution. Speak to the person(s) involved in the conflict and try to find a resolution on your own in a calm, respectful manner. If you need ideas about how to do this, speak with your Residence Don.
- 11.2.2. Residence Don Assistance. If you are unable to come to a resolution on your own, please contact your Residence Don. They will act as a neutral third party and assist you in the process of finding a mutually agreeable resolution to the conflict.
- 11.2.3. Community Advisor Mediation. In the event that the conflict cannot be resolved with the assistance of your Residence Don, residents are encouraged to use a Community Advisor as a mediator. If the conflict cannot be resolved with a Community Advisor, a resolution will be implemented by the Residence Life Coordinator which decision shall be final.

Please note: The SJU Residence Staff (Residence Don, Community Advisor and Residence Life Coordinator) are neutral third parties in any conflict. They will not act as an arbitrator or “judge” and will not make decisions regarding right and wrong when there are no infractions in accordance with the Contract or this Handbook.

12. CONDUCT EXPECTATIONS

- 12.1. Acceptable Conduct. In general terms, acceptable conduct of residents is defined as activity that does not infringe on the rights of other residents, students or staff of SJU or UW and conforms to the policies and regulations of SJU and UW including but not limited to the Contract and this Handbook (“acceptable conduct”).
- 12.2. Expectation of Acceptable Conduct. The conduct of residents is governed by the Contract, this Handbook and other guidelines and directives that may be issued by SJU, UW, or through the Residence Office. The expectation of acceptable conduct applies to the on-campus conduct of all residents and residence organizations. The expectation of acceptable conduct also applies to off-campus conduct of residents and residence organizations in direct connection with:

- 12.2.1. Field trips, floor trips, committee organized events, SJU Residence or UW coordinated volunteer work;
 - 12.2.2. Any SJU Residence activity sponsored, conducted, or authorized by SJU/UW, their respective residence administration and/or residence organizations;
 - 12.2.3. Any activity that causes (or is likely to cause) destruction of property belonging to SJU/UW, or causes (or is likely to cause) harm to the health or safety of residents, students or staff of SJU/UW; or
 - 12.2.4. Any activity that brings SJU/UW, or SJU Residence operations into disrepute.
- 12.3. Complementary to Civil and Criminal Law. It must be emphasized that SJU and UW's systems of non-academic discipline should not be regarded as a substitute for the civil or criminal law but rather as a complementary system. Residents continue to be subject to provincial and federal laws while in SJU Residence, and violations of those laws may also constitute a violation of the definition of acceptable conduct. In such instances, SJU Residence may proceed with disciplinary action independently of any criminal proceeding involving the same conduct and may impose Sanctions for inappropriate conduct even if such criminal proceeding is not yet resolved or is resolved in the resident's favour.
- 12.4. Required Leave from SJU Residence. Should your need for support and assistance exceed the SJU resources available, should you fail to comply with this Section 12, or should you not actively abide by SJU Residence Sanctions, you may be required to leave SJU Residence. Further information about the support and resources they provide can be found in Section 25 below.
- 12.30. Be an Upstander. Upstander behaviour means taking action when you see another person in harm's way. If you witness harassment, sexual harassment or assault (or the potential for), intervene directly by calling UWSCS or dial 911. If it is safe to do so, intervene directly by warning or removing the recipient from the situation, or say something to the perpetrator. We take care of each other at SJU and in SJU Residence. If you or someone you know has experienced any of the behaviour listed above, talk to your Residence Don or your Residence Life Coordinator.
- 12.31. Social Media. Activate the privacy settings on your personal online spaces (i.e., Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat and Instagram accounts). We investigate concerns that come to our attention and may review material contained in online spaces. You will be held responsible for any online posts, texts, photographs, videos, words, statements, or multi-media posted on an online forum that are hurtful, compromise the safety or integrity of the UW Campus/SJU Residence community or one of its members, or negatively impact SJU's reputation. Commercial or criminal use of SJU's computing resources is strictly prohibited, as is any use that may materially impact the performance of the network. You are expected to fully comply with both the letter and the spirit of copyright and patent law and thereby honour intellectual property rights. Electronic or data mischief and inappropriate or unauthorized use of computer equipment or electronics (including surveillance equipment) is prohibited and subject to prosecution. For more information, review the Criminal Code of Canada (ss.342.1 and 430). Network and internet resources are shared and must not be abused. SJU Residence may limit or deny access if a resident's usage is adversely affecting the network. In accordance with Section 12. 31 above, we will not tolerate any verbal or written abuse, electronic or otherwise, of any member of our community. Communication of objectionable material constitutes violation of your Contract and includes the electronic communication of material, as well as the file-sharing functions of your computer. Electronic eavesdropping or surveillance or uncomfortable encroachment on personal space can have troubling impact on an individual's sense of security and will result in Sanctions.
- 12.33. Privacy and Property. You must show respect for the privacy, property, and wellbeing of fellow residents and their right to quiet enjoyment of private and public spaces. Intrusive behaviour – failure to knock and wait for an invitation to enter, electronic eavesdropping or surveillance, or uncomfortable encroachment on personal space – can have a troubling impact on an individual's sense of security and daily comfort. These violations are likely to result in severe Sanctions. Recording individuals in any format without their knowledge, even within your private personal space, is unacceptable behaviour and Sanctions may follow. You may not make recordings of or conduct surveillance on Residence Dons, SJU Residence staff or Residence Life Coordinators without their permission. You may not enter another resident's room or disturb another resident's property without their permission. You must ask your roommate's permission before using their belongings. Residents must have written permission to enter another 's room when that resident is not present and may do so only with authorized use of the prescribed fob from their Residence Don. Do not misrepresent yourself to gain access to other resident's private spaces. Do not use emergency exits to gain access to buildings or allow others to do so.

13. CARETAKING, UNTIDINESS AND DAMAGES

- 13.1. Cleanliness. Residents are responsible for cleaning their own room and SJU highly recommends residents bring their own cleaning supplies. The condition of each room is the ultimate and sole responsibility of the resident. SJU Residence cleaning staff is responsible for cleaning the SJU Residence common areas and floor washrooms, including the accessible washrooms.

- 13.2. Unacceptable Conditions. In accordance with Section 8 above, upon check out, residents who leave their rooms in an unacceptable condition will be assessed a cleaning charge of $200.00 (plus any charges for damages).

14. GUESTS IN RESIDENCE

- 14.1. Guests. This Section 14 is in regards to accommodating guests that do not currently live at SJU, or any of the other on-campus residences at UW (a "Guest").
- 14.2. Guest Registration Form. A Guest Registration Form, available on eRezLife, must be filed by a resident with a Residence Don in the SJU Residence building in which the Guest will be staying a minimum of two days prior to the Guest entering the SJU Residence to stay overnight or for the weekend. The Guest Registration Form requires, among other things, a signature from the roommate of the resident (if applicable) and the Residence Don, indicating their approval of the overnight or weekend Guest. For clarification purposes, no Guest will be permitted without the written consent of the resident's roommate (if applicable). In accordance with Section 8 of your Contract and Section 16.12 below of this Handbook, SJU, the SJU Residence Office and/or the Residence Dons may, at their sole and unfettered discretion, deny Guests (both daily and overnight Guests) from SJU Residence in order to maintain public health and safety at SJU Residence during the COVID-19 pandemic.
- 14.3. Responsibility of Guest. While the Guest is staying at SJU, the resident must accompany them at all times. The resident is responsible for their Guest's behaviour and any financial consequences of the Guest's actions. The resident must ensure that their Guest adheres to their Contract, this Handbook as well as SJU's and UW policies and procedures implemented from time to time. If a resident does not comply with this Section 14 or has a Guest that is disturbing to the academic atmosphere present at SJU, they will have their Guest privileges suspended for the remainder of the applicable term by the Residence Life Coordinator.
- 14.4. Timeline and Removal of Guests. A resident is permitted to have a Guest over for a maximum of three (3) consecutive nights. The Guest may be asked to leave by a Residence Don and/or the SJU Residence Office at any time if they are causing a disturbance or not adhering to the Contract, this Handbook or other SJU or UW policies or procedures implemented from time to time. When requested, Guests must identify themselves to Residence Dons, SJU Residence staff, etc. and Guests who fail to do so will be required to leave SJU Residence immediately.
- 14.5. Other Individuals. Any person in the SJU Residence who is not a Guest of a resident or who cannot give a satisfactory explanation for their presence, should be reported immediately to either a Residence Don, the Residence Life Coordinator or the UWSCS.
- 14.6. Salespersons or Businesses. Because salespersons, canvassers, or agents are not allowed in the SJU Residence, nor may a business operate within the SJU Residence in accordance with Section 12 above, any resident who finds such a person or business shall report it to a Residence Don or the Residence Life Coordinator immediately.

- 14.7. SJU Discretion. SJU and Student Affairs have the exclusive right at their sole discretion to restrict or suspend Guest privileges within SJU Residence for the safety and/or security of residents and residence operations from time to time. Should these restrictions be in effect, this will be communicated to residents and lifting of such restrictions will also be communicated to residents when such restrictions are lifted.

15. RESIDENCE ACCESS AND FOBS

- 15.1. Fobs. On move-in day in accordance with the Contract, each resident will receive a fob to access their residence room, floor pod, and the entrances of the SJU Residence buildings. All fobs are the personal and sole responsibility of each resident and are not to be given or loaned, for any amount of time, to anyone else for any reason whatsoever.
- 15.2. Fee for Lost or Unreturned Fobs. If you happen to lose your fob, inform the Residence Office immediately and you will be issued another fob. There is a $50.00 fee for each lost or unreturned fob. If the lost fob in question is found within seven (7) calendar days of the issued fob, the resident should return the replacement fob to the Residence Office and the $50.00 fee will be refunded to the resident.
- 15.3. Hot-spotting. Fobs require 'hot-spotting' every seven (7) days to reactivate. The fob-access pad outside of each SJU Residence pod is a hotspot, as is the main entrance door by the SJU Residence elevators. Most residents will not need to worry about hot-spotting, as you use these areas frequently, however should your fob stop working or if you have been away from SJU Residence for seven (7) days, try holding your fob to one of these spaces until the light flashes green first. Should hot-spotting not fix any fob issues, contact your Residence Don or Student Affairs.

16. COVID-19 PANDEMIC RESPONSE

- 16.1. Introduction. In wake of the COVID-19 pandemic ("COVID-19"), SJU is committed to doing what is necessary to keep our residents safe. In doing so, we are also committed to providing residents with the well-known SJU community feel, although it will look different given the current circumstances. Like any year, it is our residents and their engagement in the residence community, and care for each other, that make the SJU residence community so special. There will be important responsibilities for everyone to embrace to ensure a safe residence community that limits the transmission of COVID-19. It will take everyone in the community practicing COVID-19 safety protocols, both on and off campus, to keep our residence community safe.
- 16.2. Where to find Information. There are a number of documents and locations where you can find information regarding SJU's COVID-19 response including, but not limited to, the Contract at Section 8, this Handbook in this Section 16, this Handbook in Section 25 below, SJU's website and UW email communications. The most up to date information regarding SJU's COVID-19 response will be available on SJU's website, at <https://www.sju.ca/covid-19-response-0>, and communicated to students and residents through their UW email. Residence Dons and Residence Office staff are available and committed to helping residents find the information, support, and resources they need.

- 16.3. Response Evolution. As the COVID-19 landscape evolves and changes, residents should expect SJU's measures to change throughout the year in accordance with same. Should any changes be implemented, residents are expected to be flexible and adapt to the current state of the SJU Residence. Any measures SJU may put in place from time to time come from direct consultation with governmental and public health agencies, and are informed by recommendations for congregate living spaces. SJU is committed to following protocols and guidelines that are consistent with those implemented by UW, the Province of Ontario, and the Region of Waterloo.
- 16.4. Residents Responsibility. Each resident has a responsibility to ensure that they act in a manner that contributes to and maintains a safe and healthy environment for all. It is therefore the responsibility of each resident to be aware of and comply with SJU's policies as they may change from time to time as they are communicated directly by SJU and/or the Residence Office, or on the SJU website, as well as any policies or guidelines put in place by the Government of Ontario, the Region of Waterloo, or UW.
